Important information

- 1 This form helps you make an objection/submission to an application in a way which complies with the Planning and Environment Act 1987, and which can be readily understood by the Responsible Authority. There is no requirement under the Act that you use any particular form.
- 2 Make sure you clearly understand what is being proposed before you make an objection. You should inspect the application at the Responsible Authority's office.
- 3 To make an objection/submission you should clearly complete the details on this form and lodge it with the Responsible Authority as shown on the Public Notice – Application for Planning Permit.

- 4 An objection/submission must:
  - state the reasons for your objection/submission;
  - state how you would be affected if a permit is granted
- 5 The Responsible Authority may reject an objection which it considers has been made primarily to secure or maintain a direct or indirect commercial advantage for the objector.
- 6 Any person may inspect any objection/submission during office hours.
- 7 If your objection/submission relates to an effect on property other than the addresses as shown on this form, give details of that property and of your interest in it.
- 8 To ensure the Responsible Authority has sufficient time to consider your objection/submission, make sure that the Authority receives it by the date shown in the notice you were sent or which you saw in a newspaper or on the site.

- 9 The Responsible Authority will advise all parties of its decision, including any Appeal Right.

Privacy notification

The personal information requested on this form is collected for planning purposes in accordance with the Planning and Environment Act 1987 (the Act). The public may view the objection or submission in accordance with Section 57 of the Act whilst the planning application is being processed and no decision has been made. In accordance with the 'Improving Access to Planning Documents' Practice Note dated December 1999, a copy of your submission will be made available to the applicant.
